On the ball with the Manager

Welcome to today's visitors Manchester City and it goes without saying that this is a very crucial game for the Wanderers.

We badly need to get on the winning path after our recent disappointments at Aston Villa and at Spurs when we lost both games.

While we have only won one game at Burnden Park we are unbeaten here this season and it is from here that we must start our recovery.

I know that Malcolm Allison and his men will be in very good spirits after their tremendous win over Manchester United last weekend and it is up to us to match them.

After the Spurs game our first team squad journeyed from London to Selsdon Park in Surrey — a training hotel which is equipped to cater for several different sports.

I decided on the break because I felt it was time the players had a change from their routine here in Bolton.

At Selsdon Park they did plenty of hard training — just as you would expect — and I am hoping that the change of environment will do the trick.

It was necessary to try to pick them up after the two away games and the hotel provided a whole range of sports from golf to squash.

We stayed there until Wednesday morning and then returned to Bolton for the final preparation for today's match.

I know it will be a difficult one, local derby games always are. The atmosphere should help both teams and we tend to play better — as against Liverpool — under such conditions.

Sam Allardyce and Len Cantello were ruled out of the Spurs game because of injuries and it would have been very pleasant to have a full first team squad available for today's game.

Welcome to

For many weeks this season Manchester City manager Malcolm Allison must have wondered if he would preside over the costliest and most gigantic disaster in English soccer history. After selling some of his established stars, he spent a fortune on untried players hoping they would fulfil their potential. But, after six games, City had only three points and appeared to be heading dramatically for the Second Division.

Since then the newly assembled team has been finding its feet, building its confidence. Indeed, a run of victories took them into a very respectable position and, at one stage, it seemed they might even make a bid for the championship!

That now seems most unlikely. At least, for this season. The point is, of course, that Mr. Allison has been looking to the long-term in his rebuilding plans and no one should really have expected too much from his side this season.

For a start he sold two of Maine Road's most creative attacking talents. Peter Barnes went to West Bromwich for £650,000 whilst Gary Owen moved to the same club for £450,000. He then released England defender Dave Watson to Werder Bremen for £200,000.

Mr. Allison invested £750,000 in Mick Robinson, a forward who had had only one full season as a Second Division player with Preston, and a further £250,000 in Steve Mackenzie who was merely a reserve player with Crystal Palace! He also paid £209,000 for Yugoslav international defender Dragoslav Stepanovic who created new problems as he couldn't understand a word of English.

A further £350,000 was invested in Wrexham forward Bobby Shinton, a player with a fine goalscoring record in the lower divisions. But City have been using him as a defender.

When former England forward Mike Channon left Maine Road, to return to Southampton for £200,000 during the early weeks of this season, former Bolton forward Stuart Lee was signed from Stockport for £100,000 as a replacement.

But the City boss made his biggest signing when paying almost £1½-million for Wolves' midfield player Steve Daley.

City's new team presented itself to the public for the first time on the opening day of this season and a 0-0 home draw against promoted Crystal Palace was a passable result. But they then lost 0-3 at Middlesbrough and the only side they managed to beat in their opening six League games was struggling Brighton. City beat them 3-2 at Maine Road.

They then lost to Tottenham (1-2 away), Southampton (0-1 at home) and West Bromwich (0-4 away).

Malcolm Allison admitted after that last defeat that "I have considered resignation." Fortunately, he held on. For a 3-0 home victory over Coventry gave the side the boost it needed. They then proceeded to win 2-1 at Leeds and draw 0-0 at Arsenal.

Successive home victories over Middlesbrough and Nottingham Forest — both by 1-0 — suggested that Mr. Allison's major problems were behind him. Subsequent results have been erratic again but there seems little doubt now that City will hold their own in the First Division this season and prepare to achieve serious successes next term.

In the League Cup City came close to defeat by Third Division Sheffield Wednesday in the second round but they recovered to win 3-2 on aggregate. They then went out 0-1 at Sunderland after a 1-1 draw at Maine Road.

Malcolm Allison is now in his second spell as City's manager, of course. During his previous term of office, first in partnership with Joe Mercer, City won the League Championship, the F.A. Cup, the League Cup and the European Cup-Winners' Cup. His career took a downward turn after joining Crystal Palace, then Plymouth.

But what of the future? It is the excitement of the unknown that is keeping City fans on their toes wondering just how this new-look City will perform when they have had a season of togetherness behind them.

MANCHESTER CITY

Joe Corrigan - Goalkeeper with Manchester City.

A Game to Remember....

Today's visit of our neighbours from Maine Road will bring memories flooding back to some of the older fans of the two teams.

The day was February 18, 1933 when City came to Burnden Park to play a fifth round FA Cup tie. Fixtures between the two teams had always attracted large crowds, but on this day 69,912 crammed into Burnden Park - the largest ever official gate.

Just before the kick-off a Wanderers official estimated the attendance at around 40,000 - how wrong he was. From early morning City fans had converged on the town sporting their club favours and traffic around the ground was heavily congested - so much so that the City team needed a police escort and only arrived in the dressing rooms half an hour before the kick off.

The game was one to remember - for City fans at least. Bolton fielded a somewhat experimental side and gave a fighting performance, but on the day they were beaten by a better side.

City winger Brook cracked in a hat-trick as the Blues won 4-2 to win through to the last eight of the Cup. Here are the two teams as they lined up on that record-breaking day:

Wanderers: Church, Duckworth, Finney, Goslin, Griffiths, Howarth, Edmed, Butler, Milsom, Gibson, Westwood.

City: Langford, Cann, Daley, Busby, Cowan, Bray, Toseland, Marshall, Tilson, Herd, Brook.

Scorers: Milson and Westwood for Bolton; Brook (3) and Tilson for City.

Just for the record conscious among you, the gate receipts on the day were £5,091 - peanuts by today's standards, but quite staggering in those days.

It was with deep regret that we heard recently of the death of Dr. Joseph Wright who was club doctor here at Burnden Park for fifty years - possibly the longest serving club doctor in the history of the game.

Dr. Wright, who leaves a widow and two daughters, was a well known family practitioner in the Bolton area.

During his career with the Wanderers, which began in the boom era of the 20s, Dr. Wright treated some of the best known players in the Club's history, the internationals, the Cup heroes, and also the junior members of the playing staff, youth team players and apprentices.

In recognition of his services to Bolton Wanderers Dr. Wright was made a life vice-president of the club.

Mr Ted Rothwell, former Bolton Wanderers secretary, who long associated with Dr. Wright said: "We were very sorry to hear of his death. He was a long and faithful servant to the club and will be sadly missed."

* * *

Another man who worked closely with Dr. Wright was former club trainer and physio Bert Sproston.

Bert retired from full time physio duties when Jimmy Headrige joined Wanderers in the summer of last year. He can still be seen around Burnden, particularly on match days, after all you can't keep a good man down especially when he's had a lifetime in football.

That was why in honour of his 28 years' service with the club, Bert received a crystal decanter and set of glasses from Chairman Mr George Warburton in a recent presentation ceremony.

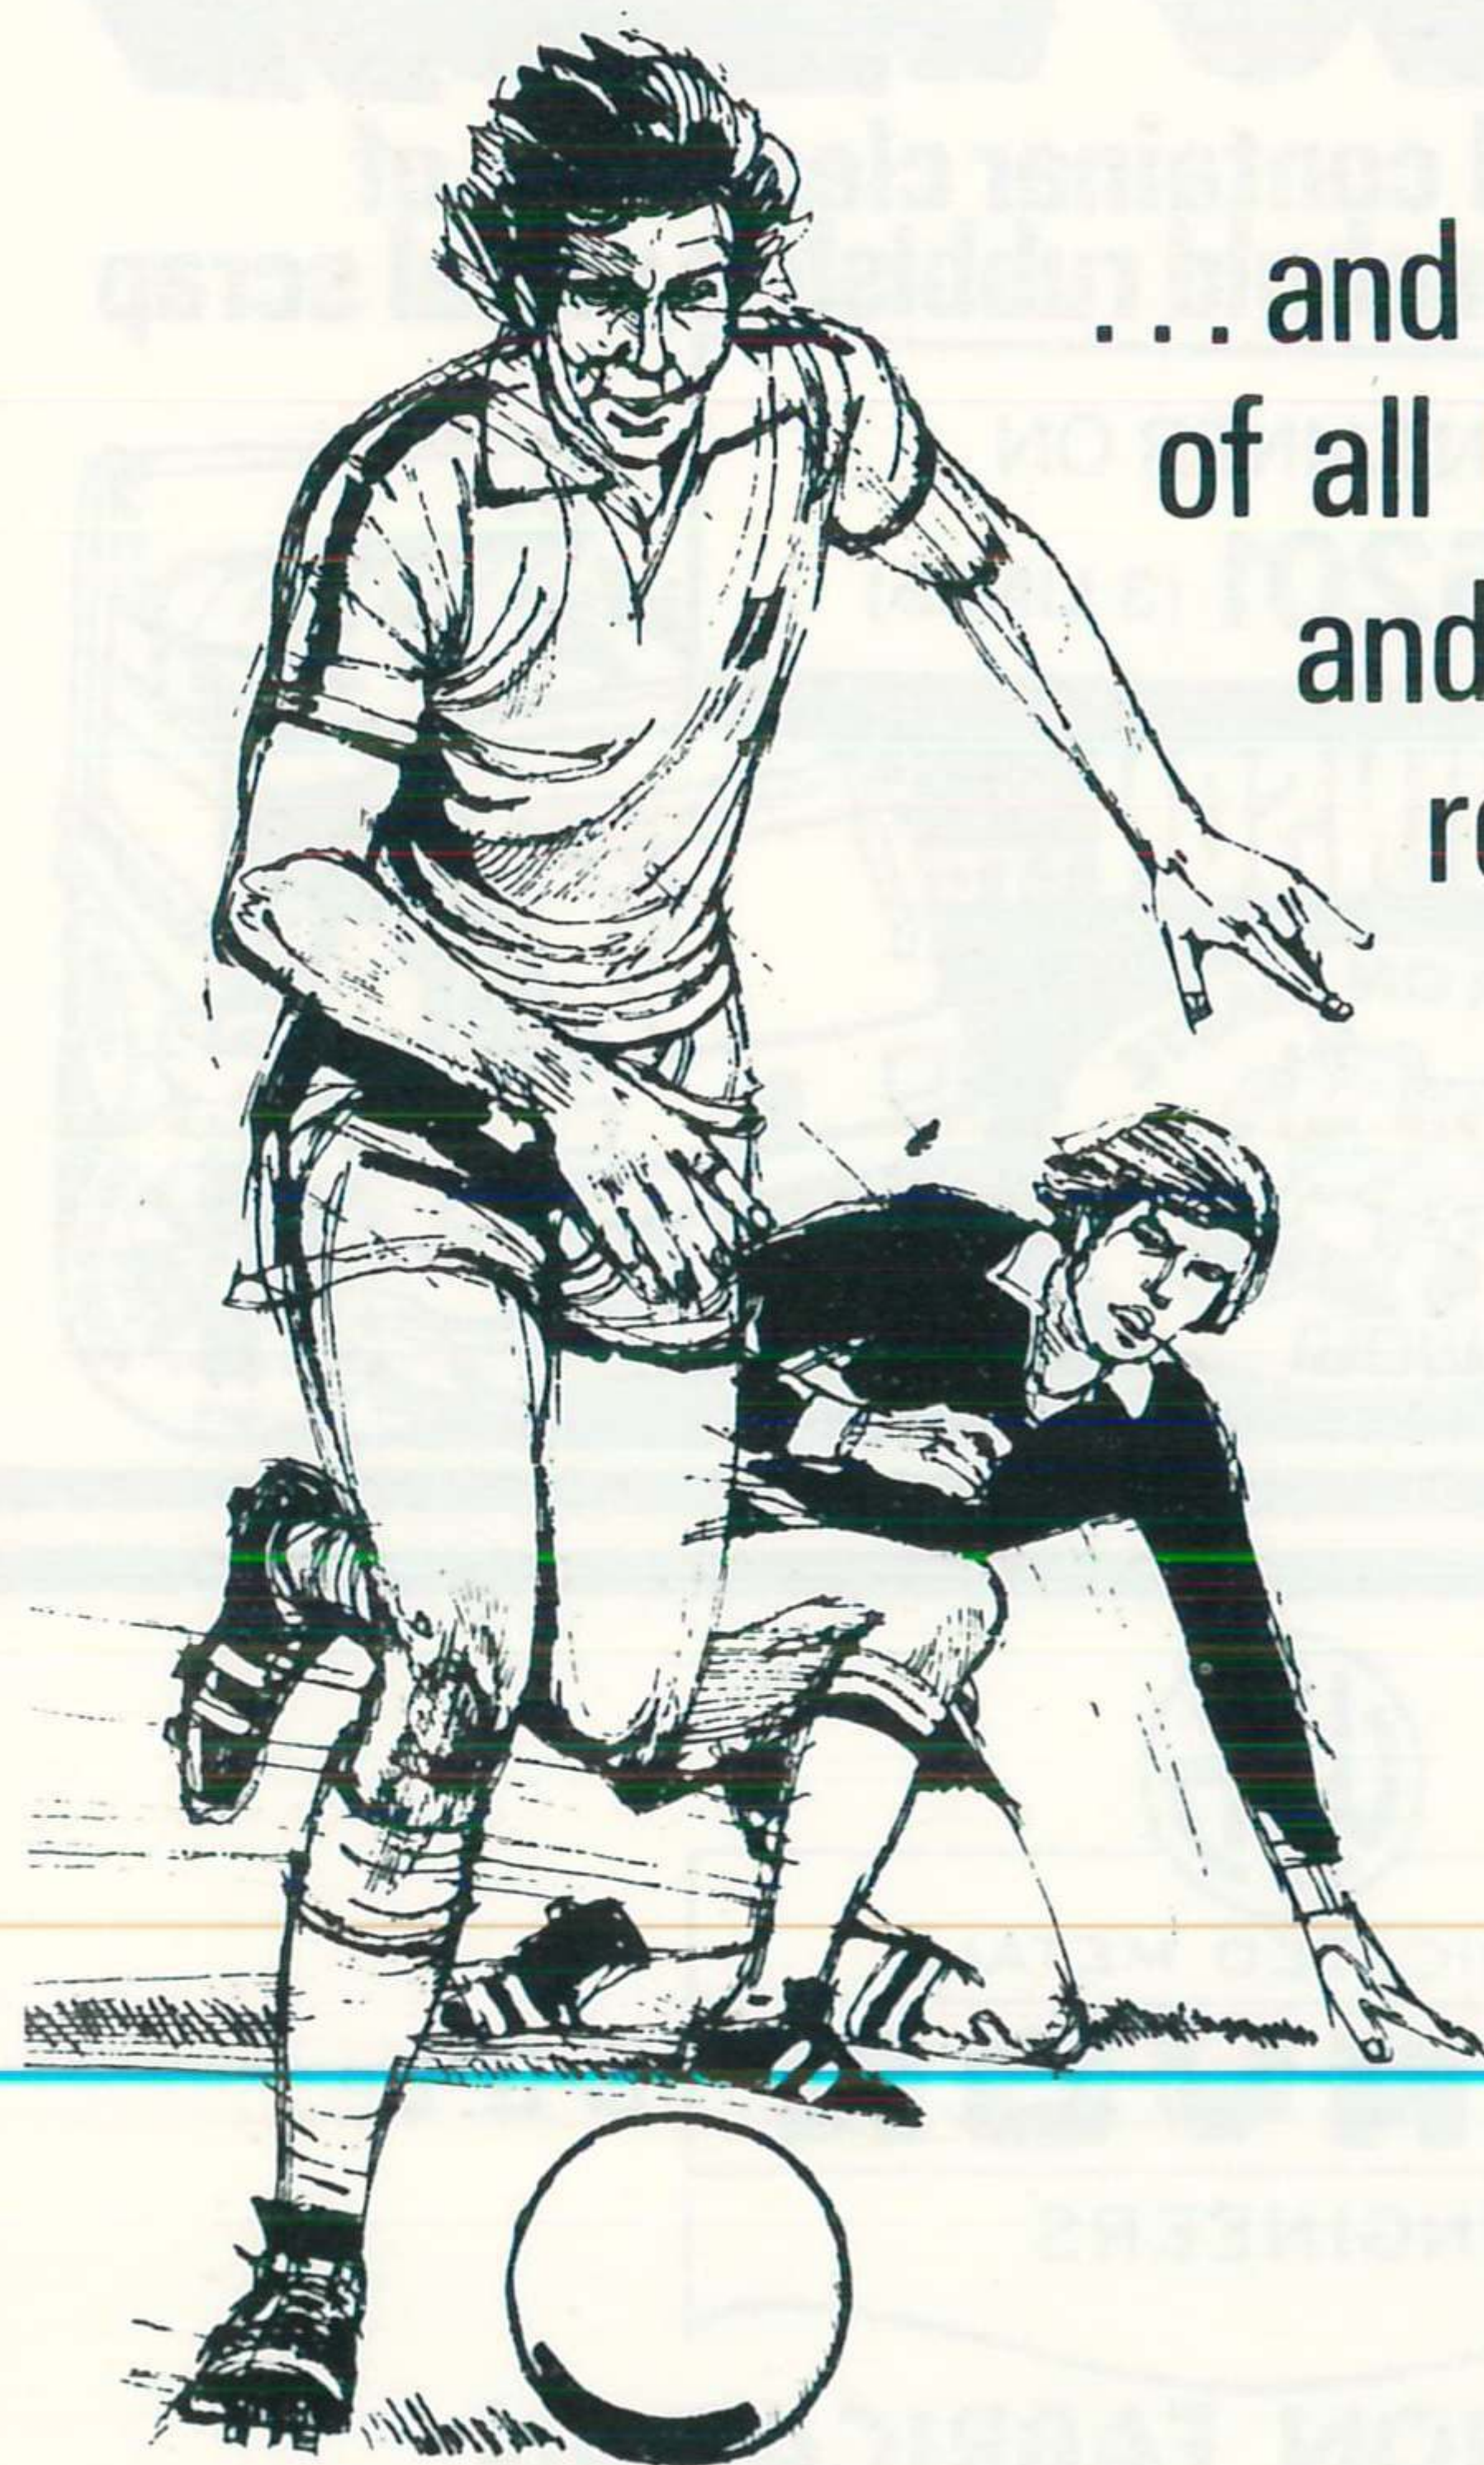

And there was an open invitation from Mr Warburton who said Bert would be welcome at Burnden any time he wished to pop in. There is always work to be done and a man of Bert's vast experience is valuable to have around the place.

Bert had a distinguished career as a full-back with Leeds United, Tottenham and Manchester City. He joined Wanderers in 1951 after quitting his playing career.

JOE CORRIGAN (Goalkeeper) Joe was recently given a testimonial in recognition of his ten years as City's first-team goalkeeper. Joe has won many honours since his debut in 1969, including three full England caps and appearances for England "B" and the under-21 and under-23 teams.

RAY RANSOM (Defender) Former youth team player Ray made his first division bow against Nottingham Forest last December. He played a few more games later in the season and has now taken over the right-back position. Ray is an England youth international.

TOMMY CATON (Defender) Tommy has made a quite remarkable impact in First Division football this season. Introduced to the side on the opening day of this season as an apprentice, Tommy has shown commanding form in the middle of the defence and held his place on merit.

PAUL FUTCHER (Defender) Paul made his League debut with Chester in 1973 and a little over a year later was sold to Luton for £100,000. He earned his place in the England under-21 side and now has 11 caps. City signed him for £350,000 during the 1978 close-season.

DRAGOSLAV STEPANOVIC (Defender) Dragoslav is a Yugoslavian international who played in the 1974 World Cup finals. He left his native country in 1976 to sign for West German side Eintracht Frankfurt and City signed him for £140,000 this summer.

TOMMY BOOTH (Defender) Tommy is one of City's longest serving players, having made his entry into League soccer in 1968. He won England under-23 caps as a central defender but in recent years he has sometimes appeared in midfield for City. He has now played more than 350 senior games for the club.

PAUL POWER (Midfield/Defender) Paul has been turning out in the unusual position of left-back this season though he normally plays in midfield. Another City discovery, Paul won his place in the first-team in 1975/76.

STEVE MACKENZIE (Midfield) City boss Malcolm Allison shocked the football world when he paid Crystal Palace £250,000 for Steve last summer — even though he had never played in a League game! But he has been justifying his potential and has now firmly established himself in First Division football.

STEVE DALEY (Midfield) Steve became Britain's costliest player when City signed him from Wolves earlier this season for a total fee of something like £1½-million. Steve had been a Wolves' first-teamer since 1972.

DAVE BENNETT (Midfield) Dave made one brief appearance in the City side as substitute last season and has now earned himself a firm place, usually in midfield but sometimes in attack. He scored his first League goals at Norwich last month when he scored twice in a 2-2 draw.

NICKY REID (Midfield) Nicky is another City discovery who was eased into the side last season and who has appeared both in midfield and defence this term.

MICK ROBINSON (Forward) Mick joined City for £750,000 this summer after only one season as a regular member of the Preston side. He made his debut in 1975/76 but didn't earn a regular place until last season when he scored 13 goals in the Second Division.

KAZIU DEYNA (Forward) Kaziu, who played for Poland on very many occasions and who was a member of the Polish side that performed so well in the 1978 World Cup, joined City from Legia Warsaw for £100,000 last season when he scored six goals in only 11 full League games.

TONY HENRY (Forward) Tony developed in the junior sides and made his first League appearances during 1976/77. He has since come in for occasional games but has not yet won a regular place.

STUART LEE (Forward) Stuart was signed from Stockport for £100,000 a few weeks ago. He needs no introduction at Burnden Park, of course, for it was here that he got his League career under way in 1971/72. Stuart made 85 League appearances for us before joining Wrexham in 1975. Stockport signed him in 1978 and last season he was their top scorer with 24 goals.

Wanderers - a unique record

WHATEVER HAPPENED TO LIVERPOOL'S "COLLAPSE"?

Those who were gleefully recording Liverpool's collapse as a major soccer power a month ago have quickly been humiliated into eating their own words. The Reds' splendid 3-0 victory over mighty Wolves meant they had been unbeaten in domestic competition since the beginning of October and extended their fabulous unbeaten home record to 47 matches!

During this period the Reds had won 4-0 away from home to Manchester City, crushed the newly-efficient Bristol City 4-0 at Anfield and then sunk championship-chasing Wolves out of sight. Is this the mark of fallen champions?

Of course not! Liverpool's early-season performances fell short only of their own high standards. For even a so-called fading Liverpool have proved themselves better than most other teams in the country!

Liverpool's last defeat at Anfield was back in January 1978 when they went down 2-3 to Birmingham. Since then their Anfield record has read:

	P	W	D	L	For	Ag
League	36	29	7	0	84	12
F.A.C.	2	2	0	0	4	0
Lge. Cup	4	4	0	0	11	2
Eur. Cup	4	3	1	0	9	2
Eur. Super Cup	1	1	0	0	2	1
	47	39	8	0	110	17

One club that used to stand shoulder to shoulder with Liverpool at the top, but which is currently in a state of deep depression, is Leeds United. Angry Elland Road fans demanded the resignation of the board and manager Jimmy Adamson after losing 1-3 at home to Bristol City. It was a defeat that left Leeds on the brink of the relegation zone.

The Elland Road crowd of 17,378 was the lowest for any First Division match since Leeds returned to the First Division in 1964 and, though Mr. Adamson repeatedly maintains that he can accept the insults, he is worried about their effect upon his young players.

"We are rebuilding at the moment," he emphasised. "But when the team bus arrives at the ground to find groups of Leeds 'supporters' demanding 'Adamson Must Go' I can see how badly it affects them."

Team-captain Trevor Cherry put forward his views: "I wish people would stop comparing us with the old team of Don Revie's era," he pleaded. "That side has gone forever and nothing can ever bring it back."

Aston Villa have been beset by political manoeuvring behind the scenes that has been undermining the work of manager Ron Saunders and his team. Though the power battle appeared to have ended with the failure of former chairman Doug Ellis to unseat the present occupant, Harry Kartz, the situation must necessarily remain uneasy while Mr. Ellis remains on the board.

After his narrow defeat at a shareholders' meeting, Mr. Ellis said he would be giving deep consideration to whether he should resign.

Meanwhile, Ron Saunders — who has been visibly upset by the events of recent weeks — got back to his job and saw his team score a good 3-1 victory over us.

The irony of Ron Saunders' position is that, though the main subject of criticism has been his sale of Andy Gray, John Deehan and John Gidman to rival First Division clubs, his Villa side has been unbeaten in League games since he had the clearout!

Some lucky fan could find himself off on a dream trip to the U.S.A. at the end of the season with £200 spending money in his pocket! The winner of Rothmans Football Supporter of the Year competition will receive a fortnight's holiday in the U.S.A. for two people and a guided tour of the American soccer scene. The supporters' club to which he belongs will receive a cheque for £500.

The runner-up will receive a £500 for himself and £300 for his club.

Supporters' clubs attached to each of the English and Scottish League clubs can put forward a candidate for the competition, to be organised initially on a regional basis. The competition is being promoted in conjunction with the National Federation of Football Supporters' Clubs.

Only clubs in membership of the Federation are eligible though special dispensation will be given to those clubs, not already in membership, who apply before the end of the year.

As the annual subscription is a mere £5.25 this would prove no obstacle for, in addition to chance of winning these lucrative cash prizes from Rothmans, clubs will have the advantage of a unique insurance scheme for members travelling to games, an exclusive national fund-raising scheme and many other benefits of membership.

All the League clubs are being circularised with entry forms and rules. Any non-federation clubs, anxious to enter, can receive full details by writing to the NFFSC at 1 Saville Road, Bath, Avon.

The competition is designed to promote the type of supporter who is a benefit to the game and is an attempt to give national publicity to the many thousands of genuine fans who are thoroughly sick of the attention that has been paid to the hooligan minority.

M6 south to intersection 15, junction with A5006 (52 miles).

A5006 to Stoke on Trent (55 miles).

Leave M6 at junction 15 and follow Stoke signs on A5006 to first roundabout in approximately $\frac{3}{4}$ mile. Go straight on at roundabout into Queensway (A500) and carry on to the first junction (Campbell Road).

Turn left at T junction and go right at roundabout. Continue along Campbell Road for $\frac{1}{2}$ mile to Victoria Ground on your right.

Wanderers Travel Club

Travel facilities to away games are again available through the official Wanderers Travel Club to members who produce their membership card when booking and carry their card on all coach or rail trips.

Membership of the Travel Club for the coming season is now being accepted by the promotions office and costs just 50p for the year (free for agents).

A passport size photograph is all that is required along with the membership fee. Support your team and follow the Wanderers with the official Travel Club.

But remember — membership does NOT guarantee a seat. You must book early in the week to be sure of travelling.
